PROJECTS

- Game Analysis: Decoding Gaming Behaviour | SQL

Conducted an in-depth analysis of gaming behaviour using SQL, extracting and analyzing large datasets to uncover player trends and patterns. Used advanced analytical techniques to decode player engagement and performance metrics.

- Restaurant Data Analysis | R

Analyzed a restaurant dataset to explore insights and build predictive models. Cleaned, processed and analyzed the datasets to identify key trends in customer behaviour, menu preferences and most common price range. Implemented statistical models and visualizations to provide actionable insights for optimizing menu offerings, pricing strategies, and operational efficiency. Build four different predictive models to predict rating of restaurants and compare their performance.

- Pizza Sales Analysis | Power BI

Executed end-to-end analysis of pizza sales data using Power BI, showcasing proficiency in data extraction, transformation, and visualization and employing advanced data visualization techniques to identify key trends and insights such as top and bottom performers by revenue, by quantity and by orders and customer's favourite pizza type and size.
